PRESS RELEASE**

For Immediate Release

On Thursday, March 10, 2016 Sheriff Troy Peterson announced the arrest of 42 year old Ronald Graham II who resides at 17278 Hwy 15 in Saucier, MS on a felony charge of Aggravated Assault.

According to Sheriff Troy Peterson on March 8, 2016 at approximately 3:30 p.m. Deputies responded to 17278 Hwy 15 on a stabbing call. Upon arrival they were met by the victim who they noticed had several knife wounds to the arm and hand. Victim stated that they had recently evicted Graham from the property. Victim stated that Graham showed back up to the property and a verbal argument ensued. Victim stated during the argument Graham pulled out a knife and stabbed him in the arm and hand. Victim stated that Graham fled the property upon Deputies arrival. Victim was transported to a local hospital for non life threatening injuries. Investigators issued an arrest warrant for Graham who was entered as a fugitive. On March 10, 2016 Biloxi Police Department made contact with Graham on a traffic stop at which time Graham was arrested on the active arrest warrant.

Robert Graham II was booked into the Harrison County Adult Detention Facility and charged with one count of Aggravated Assault. Graham is being held in lieu of a $200,000.00 dollar bond set by Justice Court Judge Melvin Ray.
