PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

On August 10, 2016, Harrison County Sheriff Troy J. Peterson released information relative to the arrest of 44 year old, Margaret Ann Golemon, who resides at the 500 block of State Street, Bay Saint Louis, MS 39520. Golemon was arrested on a felony charge of Grand Larceny.

According to Sheriff Peterson, deputies responded to the 24000 block of Arcadia Farm Road, Pass Christian, Mississippi to investigate the theft of jewelry. The investigation revealed the housekeeper, Margaret Golemon, took two rings from the residence. Harrison County Justice Court Judge Brandon Ladner issued a warrant for Golemon's arrest and set her bond at $10,000.00. Bay Saint Louis Police Department located Golemon and she was transported to the Harrison County Sheriff's Department Adult Detention Center. After her arrest, Investigators discovered the rings were buried behind a business in Waveland, Mississippi. Investigators worked with Waveland Police Department and recovered the rings.

According to Sheriff Peterson, Golemon bonded out of the Harrison County Sheriff's Department Adult Detention Center after posting a $10,000.00 bond.
