PRESS RELEASE**

For Immediate Release

On Saturday April 15, 2017, Sheriff Troy Peterson announced the arrest of 26 year old Zachary William Brown who resides at 615 Beech Circle Cleveland, TN, on a felony charge of Felony Fleeing.

According to Sheriff Troy Peterson, Harrison County Sheriff's Deputies attempted to stop Brown, who was a suspect in a hit and run, near Firetower Rd and Louboy Rd. Pass Christian, MS. Brown fled from law enforcement and a vehicle pursuit ensued. The pursuit continued onto I-10 where speeds reached over 100 mph. During the pursuit suspect came to a stop and then rammed a patrol car and fled again. Deputies were able to deploy spike strips and deflate the suspect vehicle tires. The suspect vehicle wrecked on Firetower Rd. at I-10 off ramp. The driver of the suspect vehicle, identified as Zachary William Brown attempted to flee on foot and was apprehended by Harrison County Sheriff's K-9. Brown was transported to Gulfport Memorial Hospital to be treated for his injuries.

Zachary William Brown was booked into the Harrison County Adult Detention Facility and charged with Felony Fleeing, as well as several misdemeanor charges. Brown is being held in lieu of a $100,000.00 dollar bond set by Justice Court Judge Brandon Ladner.
