PRESS RELEASE**

For Immediate Release

On Monday, December 2, 2019, Sheriff Troy Peterson announced the arrest of 23 year old Amber Marie Page who resides at 16460 Strickland road. In Saucier, MS and 26 year old Andrew Orrin Ausmer who resides at 255120 Hill Road in Pass Christian, MS on one felony count of Aggravated Assault.

According to Sheriff Troy Peterson, on Tuesday, November 26, 2019, Harrison County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the area of Saucier-Lizana Road North of Highway 53 in reference to a juvenile female in a white SUV stating that a man and a woman in a dark colored SUV followed her for the Dollar General Store on Highway 53 and fired several shots at the SUV that she was riding in. Deputies found three more juvenile occupants of the SUV including the driver that had ran off into the woods to hide after their SUV was disabled from the gunshots. No one suffered any injuries from the gunshots. Investigators were able to identify the shooters as Amber Marie Page and Andrew Orrin Ausmer. Investigators obtained warrants for Page and Ausmer for Aggravated Assault. The exact motive for the incident is still under investigation.

On November 29, 2019, Page and Ausmer were arrested on the warrants by Harrison County Deputies after Deputies conducted a traffic stop on their vehicle for running a stop sign. Page and Ausmer were transported to the Harrison County Adult Detention Center

Amber Marie Page and Andrew Orrin Ausmer were booked in the Harrison County Adult Detention Facility and charged with Aggravated Assault in lieu of a $100,000.00 dollar bond each set by Justice Court Judge Louise Ladner pending an initial.
