PRESS RELEASE**

For Immediate Release

On Thursday, January 16, 2020 Harrison County Sheriff Troy Peterson announced the arrest of 43-year-old Robert Devon Callahan and 35-year-old Ruben Stefon Nichols, Jr. of Pass Christian, Mississippi for felony charges of Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Distribute Methamphetamine.

On January 16, 2020, Investigators assigned to the Harrison County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Division, along with Special Agents of the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics (MBN), executed a search warrant at 25280 St. Stephens Road, Pass Christian, Mississippi. The search warrant yielded approximately two pounds of methamphetamine and assorted drug paraphernalia including several digital weigh scales and numerous clear plastic bags indicative of processing and distributing methamphetamine. Robert Callahan and Ruben Nichols, Jr. were both arrested on scene and are being held at the Harrison County Sheriff's Office Adult Detention Center awaiting an initial appearance before a federal magistrate in the U.S. Circuit Court in Gulfport, Mississippi.
